GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

A Big Boom of Satisfaction at Louisville over Murray's Appointment

LOUISVILLE Jan 19—The news of General Eli H. Murray's appointment as governor of Utah, was received here with great satisfaction by a large number of his friends and to-night he was given a serenade at his residence. General Murray is editor of the Louisville Commercial and the most prominent republican in the state. He was the young and one of the most brilliant cavalry generals in the army at the close of the war since which time he has filled with honor the office of U S marshal for two terms and was on the late board of visitors to Annapolis. In his remarks at the serenade last night he did not state definitely whether he would accept or not, but it is thought by his friends that he will. Congratulatory dispatches have been coming to him all day

Tammany against Tilden.

ALBANY, Jan 20—A conference of Tammany democrats from all parts of the state will be held here Wednesday and it is expected that about one hundred prominent men will be present. John Kelly will be here. The object of the meeting is to make preliminary arrangements for the presidential convention. The result of the conference will be to take immediate steps for calling a convention of democrats opposed to Tilden which shall take such steps as it may deem best to defeat any movement now or here after to secure Tilden's nomination

Printers' Strike at Kansas City

KANSAS CITY, Jan 20—The compositors on the morning papers have struck

Wrestling Match.

NEW YORK, Jan 20—The long talked of wrestling match between Police Officer Muldoon and Bauer took place to night and resulted in a victory for Muldoon who won the first and third falls

Telegraphic Arrangement.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan 20—It is stated that the contract between the American Union Telegraph Company and the Pennsylvania Railway Company, for right of way over the latter's telegraph lines, was finally approved at a meeting of the telegraph committee and railroad company on Saturday, and that papers were signed yesterday

Starting of a Big Mill at Silver Cliff Colorado

SILVER CLIFF, Jan 19—Racine Boyd mill, owned by the Silver Cliff Milling and Mining Company, started up yesterday [illegible] on a large number of citizens, invited guests and members of the press were present. [illegible] of New York, who built the mill and J. Edmondson, one of the largest stockholders and an associate of Keene, came in when the mill started. The motive power of the mill is 200 horse power. The Buckeye Corliss engine set 40 stamps and all the machinery in motion with 80 pounds of steam and made 68 revolutions to the minute. The stamps will be run 90 drops each to the minute. Everything worked as smooth as a watch, and the owners and citizens are in ecstasies over the fine working of the mill, which cost over $150 000. The first bullion bar will be turned out on Thursday week. To-day was the biggest day in the history of Silver Cliff.

A Rich Strike.

There is great excitement in the vicinity of [illegible] over recent rich discoveries in the Silver Horn mine. It is believed that it will prove another Bassick, a four foot vein of chloride and horn silver, milling 292 ounces developed free milling ore on a crosscut of fifty feet and shows several small rich veins going towards the main lead. Assays show 10,000 ounces of silver to the ton

Arthur Gorman Elected U S Senator.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Jan 20—Both houses to-day voted for U S senator to succeed Senator Whyte, whose term expires March 4th. In the senate Arthur Gorman (Dem) received 18 votes and James A. Gary (Rep) 5. [illegible] senators were absent. In the house Gorman received 63 and Gary 19. Two members were absent.

A Convention of Heirs.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 20—Some 200 heirs to the Springer estate, involving the site of Wilmington Delaware, and large money deposits in the Bank of Sweden, met this morning, and after a little preliminary business adjourned until this evening

Celebration of Lee's Birthday.

[illegible] Jan. 20—The Lee association celebrated yesterday the anniversary of General Lee's birthday by a grand parade, in which foreign consuls and city officials took part.

Prosperous Showing.

NEW YORK, Jan 20—A meeting of the St Louis & San Francisco Railroad officials in regard to Pacific coast extension, called for to-day, has been adjourned until to morrow. The freight traffic of the road has increased so rapidly of late that 700 new cars and 12 locomotives have been ordered and will be in use by May next. The road is now in full connection with the Atchison & Topeka

Presidential Status of the N. Y. Republican State Legislature.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20—An Albany (N. Y) dispatch says: The Argus of this city publishes reports of interviews with 24 republican senators and a large number of republican members of the assembly on the presidential question. Among the senators 7 are for Grant, 1 for Sherman, 1 for Grant or Blaine and 13 non-committal. Among the members of the assembly 43 are for Grant, 14 for Blaine, 3 for Sherman, 4 for Conkling, 1 for Garfield and [illegible] declined to express their preference.

[illegible] Before.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 20—The Fayette county republican convention yesterday elected delegates to the state convention. They were not instructed, but [illegible] for Blaine and one for Grant. The [illegible] of Indiana county [illegible] delegates to the state convention. The convention meets on February [illegible] at Harrisburg, to elect a delegation to the national convention.

The Rio Grande Mortgage.

WASHINGTON CITY

The Pueblo Land Case Decided in Favor of the City of San Francisco

WASHINGTON Jan 19—The following is among the decisions in the supreme court: Wm Frenouth plaintiff in error vs The City and County of San Francisco et al, in error to the supreme court of California. This is a controversy as to the title to certain lands in the city of San Francisco which were granted to the city by act of congress of March 8th, in the year 1866 and by the city deeded to defendants. Frenouth sets up a claim to said lands on the ground that his grantors were in possession thereof at the time the act of 1866 passed and that one of them was their pre-emptor under the laws of the United States. This court sustains the opinion of the district and supreme courts below that Frenouth's grantors upon his showing were intruders who never had bona fide possession of the lands in question that the right of pre-emption could not have been acquired by trespass and that said land were acquired by the United States under a foreign title that of Pueblo from Mexico which claim was pending before a tribunal of the United States at the time of the alleged pre-emption. Judgment is affirmed with costs. Field delivered the opinion

Decision Relative to the Rights of Alien Heirs.

WASHINGTON Jan 20—The supreme court in a Virginia case to-day decided that under the fifth section of the treaty of the United States with Switzerland ratified November 25 1850 alien heirs have a right to sell the property of deceased persons and withdraw the proceeds thereof within such time as the laws of the state where the property is situated may permit. The efficacy of this treaty has been guaranteed by the constitution and it has therefore become the supreme law of the land. The fact that the state of Virginia has fixed no time within which property must be sold makes no difference so far as the rights of foreign heirs are concerned. Until such laws shall be issued their right of action cannot be barred by lapse of time, and they are entitled to recover and sell the property and to carry away the proceeds

The Darien Canal Again.

In the senate, Cockrill presented a petition of prominent citizens of St Louis, asking congress to pass an act requesting the president to invite all the governments of the world having maritime commerce, to participate in an international convention at Philadelphia on July 4th 1880 to mature a plan for the construction of an international ship canal across the isthmus of Darien

Appointment of Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, Jan 19—Among appointments by the president to-day were the following postmasters: Louis Walker at Woodland Cala, Wm D Porter, San Bernardino, Mrs Jennie Goodwin San Buenaventura, John A Kears, Visalia, O H P Kinney, Waverly, N Y. The latter was a forty-niner and since his return in 1854 has held many offices of responsibility and emolument in New York and Pennsylvania

Inquiry into the Causes of the Negro Exodus.

WASHINGTON, Jan 20—The senate committee consisting of Voorhees, Vance Pendleton, Windom and Blair, appointed to investigate the causes of the exodus of colored people from the southern states, commenced taking testimony to-day

The first witnesses examined were Rev J E Rankin, pastor of the Congregational church of this city, and Thomas Tulock, assistant postmaster of Washington both of whom testified that they had no personal knowledge of the causes of the exodus and knew nothing of a widely scattered circular to which their names were appended appealing to the people of the United States for money to assist freedmen in finding a refuge from persecution, etc, except that they had [illegible] members or a board of audit for the emigrant aid society therein referred to

B W Cromwell of Washington, (colored), a clerk in the treasury department and a prominent member of the Emigrant Aid society testified that the reason North Carolina negroes left their homes was because they did not get enough money for their work. He did not hear that any of them were induced to go by Indiana politicians

Judge A B Carleton of Terre Haute, Ind, testified that there was no prominent demand for farm hands or any other kind of unskilled labor in Indiana. On the contrary there is an over supply, and the feeling of the people, including a number of old colored residents with whom he has conversed was decidedly averse to an immigration of destitute colored people.

The Kellogg-Spofford Case.

The senate committee on elections met this morning and took up the Kellogg case. It was announced that the committee had decided not to admit as evidence the first volume of testimony taken before the Porter commission

J. Welder testified that Spofford employed him in taking preliminary affidavits in New Orleans to be favorable to him (Spofford). Blackstone told witness that he could not stand to his affidavit. Others who made affidavits adversely to Kellogg made similar retractions to witness afterwards, adjourned

Recruits Ordered to Colorado.

The superintendent of the general recruiting service was ordered to forward to Gov Garland, Colorado, 50 recruits for assignment to the 19th infantry

Secretary Schurz on Pending Ute Questions.

WASHINGTON Jan 20—Secretary Schurz said to-day: "It has never been held by the department of the interior that if any individual member of the Ute nation committed a crime that the whole nation should be held responsible and punished therefor but under the provisions of the treaty of 1868 if certain offenses are committed by the Utes against the whites, the Ute nation is bound to surrender the offenders and this fact is fully recognized by Ouray. If a peaceful settlement can be made with the Utes there is no one in the department that desires to deprive them of their reservation without allowing them the most liberal compensation. It is thought by some members of the Ute delegation now in this city that a good many Indians will be willing to settle down in severalty upon agricultural lands on their present reservation and yield the balance of the land to the government and that those who will not do this will go peaceably to the Uintah reservation." In some further remarks the secretary said: "I deem it my duty to do all I can toward settling the present difficulties without an Indian war and without doing injustice to any one."

Counterfeit Coins

The solicitor of the treasury to-day tendered an official opinion classing the so-called educational toy money with counterfeit coins

Matters of Interest to Oregon.

In the senate to-day there was presented a petition of H Villard president of the Oregon Railway & Navigation Co praying that the duty on imported steel rails shall be specific and not to exceed ten dollars per ton also, a petition of the Portland board of trade for the appropriation of $250 000 for the improvement of the Columbia river

Matters in Committee

The senate finance committee to-day postponed action on Morton's nomination for collector of internal revenue until next Friday's meeting

The house military committee finally agreed this morning upon Representative Bragg's bill restoring Fitz John Porter but materially amending it from the shape it was left at the meeting on Saturday. The [illegible] of the original bill which had been stricken out after some discussion was again reported this morning

Brief Session of the Kellogg-Spofford Committee.

WASHINGTON Jan 20—The senate elections committee [illegible] who testified against Spofford. Both Hoar and Saulsbury sharply criticized [illegible] adjourned

MORTON'S CHANCE.

The California Delegation Put in a Strong and United Protest against his Confirmation

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

WASHINGTON Jan 20—Senators Booth and Farley at the request of the senate finance committee appeared before that body to-day and made brief oral statements of the grounds upon which in common with all the other members of the California delegation in congress they protest the confirmation of John M Morton as collector of internal revenue for the first district of California. The grounds as heretofore succinctly stated in these dispatches are first that Morton has not sufficient experience and business ability to fill so important a position properly and second that he is not identified with California and therefore should not be given an office which the people have a right to expect to be filled by one of themselves. In support of these assertions Senators Farley and Booth informed the committee that only about four years ago Morton was appointed as treasury agent for inspection duty at the Fur Seal Islands of Alaska from Indiana to which state and not to California he was credited in his appointment papers and in the U S register or blue book. They further informed the committee that when Morton was nominated last spring for the position with its handsome salary of $4000 per year he still holds it was only as a matter of special favor and upon Morton's solicitation that they consented to his being credited or rather charged against the quota of consular appointments allotted to California for they did not then any more than now consider him identified with California in any true sense of identification or abiding citizenship. This consular appointment was made before his long term of office in Alaska as an appointee from Indiana had expired and similarly while holding a lucrative office at Honolulu he had been nominated to their great surprise as collector for the extremely important district of San Francisco without a single request being on file from California for his nomination and without one word of request or recommendation in his behalf having even been received by any member of the California delegation until after his nomination. In the face of their united personal protest to the president his name has been sent to the senate

After hearing, the California senator and asking several incidental questions the committee proceeded with other business previously pending but before adjourning the Morton case was set down for consideration and action at the next regular meeting on the 27th inst. It was rumored about the capital to-day that this postponement of action which is believed to favor Morton's chances by affording enlarged opportunities for the exertion of sympathetic appeals and presidential patronage influences, was procured partly by the influence of Washington representatives of the Ohio whisky distillers and high wine manufacturers, who it is said expect to facilitate their long standing efforts to monopolize the California trade by having the San Francisco collector's office under the control of some eastern man

The Debris Question

Representative Page referring to the criticisms of some California papers that the passage of his joint resolution for appointment of a debris commission would delay appropriations, says that while he would favor a direct appropriation, and work for one with all the energy he possesses, yet he is clearly of the opinion that his measure will facilitate an appropriation in the only practicable way possible so far as the debris argument is concerned. He says that there has never been an instance in the history of this government where an appropriation has been made or even recommended by a committee of the house in advance of [illegible] survey and estimates by the U S engineer department. This fact was thoroughly proved by Chairman Regan of the committee on commerce during the debate on the new rules last week but has long been well known by observers of congressional action near at hand. The joint resolution will not preclude efforts to obtain appropriations for river improvements in the regular way, but is in the annual river and harbor bill for the improvements of navigation in the distinctive interest of commerce. It is notable in this connection that the total amount of the department estimate for the improvement of the Sacramento and Feather rivers is only $60,000 with no recommendation or estimate whatever for the San Joaquin or for any other streams or bays concerned in the debris problem, and that congressional appropriations never exceed the estimates but almost invariably fall very far below them

CALIFORNIA PIONEERS' BANQUET

At New York City—Many Distinguished Persons Present.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

NEW YORK Jan 12—The fifth annual banquet of the Associated Pioneers of the territorial days of California, and social gathering of survivors of the army and navy in the service of the United States on the coast of California during the years 1846 47–48 was held last evening at the Sturtevant House and was one of the most successful yet held. It is said that the U S government has ordered a detachment of 5000 veterans to operate against the Indians because the latter had killed a number of Americans

It is rumored that partisans of Senor [illegible] de Tejara recently invaded the state of Chiapas from Guatemala and that government forces had attacked the invaders near Socanusco dispersing them. It is believed Guatemala is systematically violating the neutrality laws

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

A Land League Meeting Disturbed by a Priest.

NEW YORK Jan 20—A London dispatch says: On Sunday an unusual scene occurred near Balla county Mayo at a meeting of tenant farmers to join the Balla tenants in defense of the association. After the mass meeting the members attempted to explain the purpose of the Irish national league association. While the rules were being read the parish priest Father Sheridan entered and in a rage called on the people to disperse. He said that he would not allow interference in the parish or allow any secret organization. A gentleman said that it was not a secret organization. "These are the rules of the national land league," he said. "I represent it, and so does Charles Stewart Parnell." Great cheers were given for Parnell and Davitt. The crowd was excited. The priest said that the gentleman was a blackguard and wanted to extort money from the people. The parish priest vainly commanded and begged the people to disperse and finally went away discomfited. The meeting then chose delegates. The returning delegates were escorted by large crowds

Distress in Ireland Vast and Extending

DUBLIN Jan 20—An appeal of the Mansion committee to the people of the United States says: It is now admitted that the distress is of acute and exceptional character and certain to involve actual starvation if extensive aid be not promptly and liberally forthcoming. The distress daily increases in area and intensity and it seems almost impossible to avert until next harvest absolute famine in very many places. This central committee distributes its relief through local committees, of which the clergy of all denominations in a district rich and poor and law and medical officers must be members and requires that relief be given only in kind and not in money

A Technical Pretext

LONDON Jan 20—Acting on legal advice Davitt Brennan and Kellan do not intend to take further steps to answer the writ summoning them to appear before the court of the queen's bench in London. They take the ground that they have fulfilled their legal obligation by presenting themselves in the crown office Friday last when the necessary stamped forms for entering their appearance were not ready

The Spanish Chamber.

MADRID Jan 20—Intelligence that the opposition had decided to abstain from taking their seats, created general surprise. The ministerealists are much irritated and creole deputies are disgusted as the slavery abolition bill will now be passed with but little resistance. The Cuban members of the chamber of deputies will present an amendment to the bill for the abolition of slavery asking the government to promise tariff reforms to facilitate Cuban trade with foreign countries and to declare the privilege of the coasting trade extended to the West Indian government[illegible]bers will not vote in favor of the ministerial bill. The opposition has unanimously resolved that no reasons exist for discontinuing the policy of abstention because the president of the cortes is not empowered to propose the settlement which they deem necessary for their dignity

The council of ministers will be held to determine the line conducted to be adopted by the government in consequence of the attitude of opposition

The Spanish Ministry.

MADRID Jan 20—Toreno, minister of foreign affairs will be nominated president of the chamber of deputies to-morrow. Premier Canovas Del Castello is provisionally administering the office of minister of foreign affairs

Suicide

SAN FRANCISCO Jan 19—Frank Horan aged 2[illegible] who has been stopping at the American Exchange for a few weeks past shot himself in the breast and head in his bed room this evening. The wounds are probably fatal. Horan attributed his act to the tortures of dyspepsia

The Infected Steamship

SAN FRANCISCO Jan 20—The board of health has decided to transfer the Chinese crew of the steamer City of Peking to the quarantine hulk at Saucelito and keep them there until satisfied that no further danger of contagion exists. The officers of the ship and white passengers will remain on board until it can be determined whether they are infected. They will probably be released next Sunday. The captain of the steamer will be allowed to come ashore after being well fumigated to attend to necessary business. All freight on board will remain untouched until the passengers come ashore when the ship will be thoroughly fumigated after which the goods will be landed

Extensive and Fatal Fire at Tokio.

A LARGE PORTION OF THE CITY DESTROYED.

One Hundred or More Lives Lost—The Foreign Quarter Suffers

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

YOKOHAMA, Jan 3—Via San Francisco Jan 20—Public attention is entirely absorbed by a disastrous conflagration at Tokio on December 26th. This is the third similar overwhelming calamity in seven years—the first in 1872 the second in 1876. Now miles of ground are laid waste, nearly 15 000 homes destroyed and 50 000 persons are rendered destitute. The actual pecuniary loss is still undetermined but it is not so great as it would be in western countries, owing to the cheap construction of the majority of the houses. The loss of life is reckoned at about 100 but there is much uncertainty. The progress of the flames having been so rapid as to overtake and destroy many who could give no sign. In several instances numerous unrecognizable bodies or fragments were found among the ruins. Many again, died from exposure to the cold, the night succeeding the fire being exceptionally bitter, as happened twice before in great fires. A considerable part of the foreign district was destroyed including several missionary establishments, one church and one foreign news paper office, the Tokio Times. The [illegible] of the United [illegible] measures of relief were instituted by the government authorities and private individuals, and no efforts were spared to alleviate suffering but all these were necessarily insufficient.

There is a strong cry for imperative action of the authorities preventing in future the crowding together of inflammable structures and for the organization of efficient fire brigades, which are now unknown here. The common multitude oppose them and cling blindly to the old usages. It is the common expectation that reforms will be introduced insuring that this will be the last of fatally destructive fires in Tokio

An Impolitic Discrimination against the United States—Internal Affairs.

Much surprise and feeling is announced at the intention of Japan to fix higher customs duties upon American than upon English imports. It is evident that strenuous efforts have been made by English agents here to keep down taxation upon English commodities, while American agents have deemed it incredible that any unjust discrimination would be shown against a nation which has all along stood Japan's firmest friend. Never the less this unfortunate mistake has been committed but energetic representations of its impolicy and danger have been presented by the United States minister whose remonstrances will doubtless prove effectual

The Japanese have extended their excellent school system throughout the newly-adjusted Riu Kiu Islands

The British charge d'affairs is abandoning the aggressive and obstructive course pursued by the envoy when the latter was himself in charge. Notification has been issued from the legation ordering strict compliance with the pilotage regulations of the government of Japan a concession long denied by Sir Harry Parkes who it is believed would never have granted it if he had remained here

All foreign post offices are now removed from Japan excepting only at the French station at Yokohama. The United States offices were withdrawn five years ago to the mutual satisfaction of Japanese and Americans. Others were retained until now, with the avowed object of extorting compensations from the Japanese authorities

THE CHINESE EMPIRE.

Commencement of a Defiant Policy.

ATTEMPT TO REDUCE MATTERS TO THEIR OLD STATUS.

Barbarous Treatment of Innocent Relatives of an Offender.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

HONGKONG Dec 4—Via San Francisco Jan 20—[illegible] Tseng, who just returned from St. Petersburg now occupies the chief position of influence and power at the imperial court owing to his success in obtaining the retrocession of the western provinces of Kashgar [illegible]. He is a strong advocate of exclusive Chinese rights and is known to be inimical to foreign relations. It is anticipated that a new policy is soon to be introduced, as defiant as prudence will allow of the western powers. Several indications are already manifested

Reports have been circulated of new proposals for treaty amendments to be issued early in 1880 by Tsung Li Yamen [illegible] tending to the resumption of complete control over all ports by China, and the assertion of the same rights over foreign residents as over native subjects. These plans it is apparent will be cautiously and ingeniously developed and slow in maturing but unless some event occurs to check the extreme self confidence of this empire caused by over vaunted achievements by soldiers and diplomatists, it appears they [illegible] that a new and by no means friendly system will be pushed forward. Successive steps however will be managed adroitly so as to avoid suspicion of the true purpose as long as possible. This is the [illegible] Chinese programme for the coming year and perhaps for several years following

Owing to strong intercessions from foreign and private sources and especially it is believed from the [illegible] of England the barbarous sentence [illegible] passed upon the surviving relatives of Yakub Beg ex ruler of Kashgar have been commuted to life imprisonment

THE ARMAMENT OF THE STATE HOUSE.

The Fusionists Reorganize at Union Hall and Say that they will "Hold Out all Winter"

GENERAL EXCITEMENT—[illegible] INCIDENTS

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

AUGUSTA Jan 19—At 4 40 Wilson of Aroostook a member of the fusion house arrived at the gate and simultaneously Mayor Nash came down from the state house. Wilson demanded admission and was refused

"By whose order?" he said

"By the order of Gov Davis" said the mayor. "Gov Davis ordered the state house cleared because no business is being transacted in any of the departments neither the treasury state offices nor either house of the legislature."

"But" expostulated Wilson "I have some valuable papers in my desk which I must have."

Mayor Nash—"I am sorry sir but am only obeying the governor's orders in keeping you out."

The fusionist senator, Strickland came up. "Can I go in?" he asked

"No sir" was the mayor's reply

"I ask admission as a member of the senate of the state of Maine. My name is Strickland, and I can show you my credentials."

"I am ordered not to admit any one," was Mayor Nash's reply

"By whose orders?" asked Senator Strickland

"Gov Davis'" was the response. "If you have any communication to make in writing I will forward it to the governor."

"No sir" said the senator "I have no communication to make. I am satisfied."

At 4 45 Mr Lamson, president of the fusion senate, and Mr Talbot speaker of the fusion house appeared with the secretary and clerk of these bodies and demanded admission. Being refused by the mayor, they asked entrance as members of the legislature, only to have it again denied them. They put the same question as Senator Strickland and received similar answers

A few minutes later Gov Smith came up and attempted to pass without asking any questions. He was stopped by armed officers, when he said "I demand admission as governor." His authority was not recognized and he was turned back

At this time at least 2000 persons had gathered at the gate and the throng swayed to and fro endeavoring to hear what was going on

A representative supposed to be Knowles of Bradford, who has sat but not acted with the republican house, began a speech, in which he denounced the authorities for refusing him admission in the strongest terms

Presently a new diversion occurred and a cheer drew everybody's attention to where the tall form of Talbot, speaker of the fusion house, was posted on the fence of the state house yard. Clerk Gibbs stood at his feet with the record book and sundry papers. Mr Talbot said in substance: "Since we are not permitted to enter the legislative hall by a usurping and illegal governor, it becomes my duty to call the house of representatives to order on the nearest possible spot. Gentlemen of the house of representatives you will please come to order." The reading of the journal was dispensed with and an order was offered by Plaisted of Lincoln, that the house adjourn to meet to-morrow at Union Hall, Augusta. In reading this order Talbot began "State of Maine house of representatives as near as possible" which created a laugh in the crowd. He declared the order adopted and the house adjourned accordingly

The members of the fusionist legislature then started down State street, followed by a crowd. An indignation meeting was organized in front of the Augusta House and speeches were made by leading fusionists. Great excitement prevails

At the fusion meeting in front of the Augusta House James D Lamson made a brief address, relating his grievances. He said that he was unable to gain admission to the state house, though he had as much right there as any other citizen. He was glad to see the crowd so civil and circumspect

John C Talbot speaker of the house made a brief speech in the same vein

While there were quite a number of ugly talking fusionists in the crowd most of them were good-natured and joked about the position of affairs. No threats were made, but the republicans were given to understand in many ways that this would be used against them in the next campaign. The crowd then quietly dispersed

Sidewalk Senatorial Session

Lamson president of the senate, who had also climbed upon the fence took off his hat and said "Gentlemen of the senate will please come to order." Plaisted's order was then taken up and declared adopted in concurrence and Lamson declared the senate adjourned

Gov. Davis "Sound on the Goose"

Gov Davis, by whose orders the state house was closed against the fusion legislature says that he was unwilling that the farce should go on longer. Had they applied as citizens and not as a legislative body, admission would have been granted. He should be ashamed to occupy the position of chief executive and allow what has justly been termed a flat legislature to meet. We have a legal legislature, backed up by the courts, people and military and it is about time the humbug part was done away with. He had no doubt that the rank and file of the fusionists are all right and have honest purposes and if let alone by unscrupulous leaders would take their places in the legislature

Scene Inside the State House on Monday Afternoon—Fully Guarded by Armed Men and Prepared for an Attack.

AUGUSTA Jan 20—The scenes inside the state house during yesterday afternoon were extraordinary. The granite-walled old structure resembled a feudal castle awaiting attack. In every passage way from the subterranean regions up to the roof were policemen armed with revolvers. Policemen challenged the steps of the exceedingly few persons who had by special favor gained admittance. A double guard protected the governor's room. The spacious rotunda below swarmed with men and when any one succeeded in getting past the guard at the step gate he was not admitted to the state house without scrutiny from the vigilant sentries who tended carefully the locked doors. The younger guardsmen on duty did not hesitate to show their revolver and were anticipating a hot contest with the fusionist forces whom they believed were about to arrive by railroad. A special force of 120 or more men was detailed to stand guard on the balcony fronting State street. Just before the arrival of the fusion legislature on the sidewalk below this balcony the force was ordered into the hall of the house, where they were drawn up in military order and divided into squads. Gen Chas Mattocks of Portland was in command of this contingent, and he appointed Major A Benson of Portland his adjutant. When the guard was about to move out to the balcony Gen Mattocks commanded them to off step, fearing that the measured tread of so many men would be heard by the fusionists on the sidewalk, thirty feet distant. So when the men went out they did one step and succeeded in making no unnecessary noise. They were all armed with revolvers and from their elevated point in the lofty balcony could have guarded the steps leading from the state house against a force of 5000

What Smith Says

The legislature will investigate promptly and thoroughly the frauds which have been discovered and alleged bribery cases. A large number of men who have been in the city during the excitement will return home by to night's train. The fusion governor Smith said this evening that there was a probability that his government would be recognized by congress as the only lawful authority in Maine. The intention of himself and other fusion leaders was to act with deliberation. There was no occasion for hasty action. In a few days he should issue a proclamation giving a true version of the political situation

The Fusionists will Hold Out All Winter, so they say.

Failing to gain admission to the state house yesterday has seemed to cement the fusionists. They say that Governor Smith could have had 10 000 men in readiness at a moment's notice, but his council for peace has prevailed. The meeting last night of fusionists seemed harmonious. They have secured Union Hall, where they will hold their legislative assemblies beginning to-day. Their secretary of state and governor has [illegible] rooms in the same building. Money enough has been guaranteed to run their legislature all winter and pay every member's salary. They say that they intend to appeal to congress and will soon have a committee here to investigate matters. The committee will report to-morrow unanimously declaring their body to be legal but have not determined on any final plan of action. [illegible] the legislature cannot hold [illegible] a week but in the present frame of mind of the fusionists it is impossible to predict. It is thought that if they had taken possession of the state house they would have held it until expelled. [illegible] 250 pounds of ammunition were found in the office of the superintendent of the [illegible] which have been a sort of headquarters for [illegible] revolvers. [illegible] has been somewhat [illegible] has been duly installed [illegible] very indignant [illegible]

Proceedings of the Fusionist Legislature—They will Stand Firm

The fusion senate and house were called to order at [illegible] o'clock at Union Hall on Water street. In the [illegible] committee appointed on Saturday to recommend a [illegible] instructed to report a [illegible] the proceedings of yesterday at 11 M to-day. He urged them to stand firm as he had confidence that this body would be recognized as the legal legislature of Maine by the courts as well as by congress. In fact he said he had assurance to this effect. Dr Bradbury said that he did not quite like the attitude of some of his fellow members who did not seem to have that determination and steadfastness necessary for carrying the cause to a successful end. He had a firm faith that authority higher than a partisan supreme court would recognize this as a legal legislature and he urged the appointment of committees and proceeding to regular business just as if the usurping party had not prevented their meeting in the place in which this body was entitled to sit and meet. He read a letter from friend in Oxford urging the fusionists to stand firm and recognize no usurping legislature, to stand by the legal governor Smith and that the men would be ready to sustain them to the last. He said that all parts of the state felt the same way about this act of violence. It had strengthened the fusionist cause and bound them together

Swan followed accusing the republicans of bribery and intimidation at the polls of planning to get a partisan decision from the supreme court, and of usurping the governor's office. The fusionists should say to the court "Hands off! we will not be suppressed by your partisan action." A dark cloud of treason hangs over us. The capitol is in the hands of rebels. If we stand firm victory will be ours

A committee was appointed on pay roll and mileage of members

Dickey said that if the state treasurer refused to pay out funds for this it would be provided for otherwise

Plaisted deprecated haste or rashness. Affairs were in safe hands and if they were careful all would be well. He deprecated force and inflammatory talk

Staples said that he had told the republicans who invited him into their legislature that that body was like a hotel without a bed, pantry or food and nothing but a sign. His quaint remarks provoked great laughter

Proceedings of the Fusionist Senate.

The fusion senate met in the ante room

Patton said "We are waiting a reply from the judges whether they will entertain questions from this body." Patton believed intimidation to be rampant in the country

Barker said that attempts were made to bribe him and he hoped a resolution of investigation would pass

Thompson, of Knox believed that frauds were practiced

Wallace said he wished the opinion of the court. He thought that the fusionist house was not legal, but that the senate was a legal body, that no business transacted by the house would stand legally. Some action must be taken that will be recognized by the courts, also some action that would affect the greenback party in the spring elections

Patton had come to Augusta to do the duty imposed upon him as a legislator. He believed both branches legal and that they should proceed to the transaction of business

Appointment by Gov. Davis.

Gov Davis' first nomination was Col. A. W Wildes, of Skowhegan, for railroad commissioner. Col Wildes was nominated by Gov Garcelon but the democratic council tabled the nomination. He has held the office for a number of years.

The Treasury Locked—Executive Appointments, etc., etc.

The governor has just made the following nominations: W A Luce superintendent of schools, John D Myrick state librarian

The state treasurer to-day issued an order instructing the subordinates of his office not to honor any demand for payment of money from or issued by the authority of either of the bodies claiming to be the legislature of the state until further advised by him.

A. G Andrews, secretary of the fusion senate, and Mark Hardin, messenger of the governor and council, have delivered up the keys to their respective offices.

An order was passed by the house providing for the purchase of a new seal, should the state seal not be found.

"And when She got There the Cupboard was Bare!"

Machinists worked all night on the safe in the secretary's office, and finally opened it. There were no valuable papers in it, nor the seal of the state nor the official election returns. The congressional returns have been destroyed.

Proceedings of the Republican House.

Both branches to-day adopted resolutions setting forth that the legislature has legally organized according to the supreme court decision; that they will proceed to regular state business, and giving notice that any other bodies of men claiming to be the senate and house of Maine are wholly without right or authority and are proceeding in violation of the constitution and laws of Maine.

An order was issued requiring the judiciary committee to inquire whether legislation was necessary [illegible] state's office

Won't Submit it to the Court.

The debate in the fusion senate to-day developed much opposition to submitting the question of the legality of the two senatorial bodies to the supreme court. It was declared that no comfort could be had from that quarter

Compromise Suggested.

Ellis, of the fusion senate, declared to-day that a member of the state house legislature had made a proposition to unite upon a basis of dividing the state offices. He did not give the name of the party making the proposition

Garcelon's Irregularity—Two Fusion Members come over to the Republicans.

It has been found on casual investigation that during the last week of Garcelon's administration he drew warrants on the treasury without filing a voucher

Hill and Moulton, fusion members, took seats in the house. Rafter and Bonner, also fusionists, had already taken their seats, refusing to act with the fusion house

NEWS NOTES FROM YAKIMA.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE OREGONIAN.]

YAKIMA CITY, Jan. 11, 1880

The days of luxuriant bunch grass in Yakima are past, the tall rye grass of the bottoms that hitherto has been a vast elysian field for hungry herds in mid winter, is non est, and stock men, however reluctant, must admit that in the future preparation for feeding in the winter is an absolute necessity. Large owners must find new ranges and smaller ones cultivate more land, and all must acquiesce in welcoming the tide of immigration that is just beginning to pour in upon us

Our city is improving rapidly, but the scarcity of lumber has retarded its growth very materially during the past season. We have now about 400 inhabitants, 5 stores, 1 tin shop, 2 livery stables 2 saloons, 1 planing mill, 1 grist mill, several carpenter shops 3 blacksmith shops and 2 hotels

A large sawmill is being constructed on the Yakima river at the mouth of the Natches by Mr Leonard Thorp, which will be in operation early next summer. Contractors are at work rafting logs down the Yakima

Harkness & Co are also at work on the river with 100 men and teams. They are getting out railroad ties for the Northern Pacific

The following persons are feeding beef for the Portland and Sound market in the spring: Polly & Inbrie Purdy Flint Phelps & Wadleigh Willis Thorp and George Smith. In all there are over one thousand head of stall fed beef now in this county

Our mines are attracting more attention than usual. Quite a number of our citizens who own mines in different places through the hills are making preparations for an early start in spring. Messrs C P Church and Samuel Coulter of Portland will put up a stamp mill on the Lockwood mine the coming summer. Marshall Blinn we understand will put machinery on his mine. The Swauk placer mines will be worked extensively and several others, both placer and quartz will be opened the coming summer. Some are going from here to the Skagit mines. They are only about 200 miles from this place and old miners say this is the easiest route

Grain is still very low here wheat rating at 50 cents per bushel. J H Wilbur, agent of Yakima reservation is now buying all the wheat he can get to supply his Indians. This does not look much like the Indians raised a surplus of forty thousand bushels as has been reported

Southern Oregon Mines

[From the Jacksonville Times]

The recent high water cleared Foots creek and other streams of accumulated tailings which will give the miners more dump than they have been favored with for some time

Chappel Jackson & Co at Star gulch are working [illegible] and have an ample [illegible] drawing on the [illegible]

Work is still done at the Squaw Lake [illegible] Superintendent Klippel [illegible] engaged in making repairs and will proceed with all possible speed

[illegible] has taken a new start at Yreka. [illegible] in San Francisco together with [illegible] of that vicinity have formed a company and propose operating an extensive tract of ground lying along Yreka creek which is supposed to be very rich

The Grand Applegate Co has everything in readiness and may commence piping at almost any time. Superintendent Fitzpatrick has succeeded in having the ditch cleared of all obstructions and the diggings placed in the best shape preparatory to an extended run

The Sterling Co. is delayed by snow which lies about four feet in depth at the head of its ditch. The water was turned out when the storms commenced and the snow is so deep that the water will not clear the ditch of it and it will probably be necessary to shovel out

It has been many years since the prospects for a prolonged mining season were better. The miners, each and all of them not only have an abundance of water now but the deep snow in the mountains promises to keep up the supply until late in the spring. The rains of February and March will also be of great benefit so that we may expect that the miners will have a seven months run in almost any event. All of them are better prepared than ever before, and the amount of gold dust that will be extracted will doubtless exceed that of any year since the palmy days of old

CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate.

WASHINGTON Jan 20

Beck announced that he would speak against the Bayard resolution to morrow

Logan by request presented a petition of soldiers for the passage of Weaver's bill for the payment to soldiers of an extra amount of money. Logan said he regarded the bill as the greatest piece of demagogism ever invented in congress and regretted that soldiers were deceived into signing the petition

After passing several unimportant bills the senate took up the special order bill to prevent cruelty to animals in transportation and several of the proposed amendments were discussed

Thurman said that he did not think that the bill fully protected stock in transit from Canada

Eaton and McPherson held that the clause provided fully for the comfort of cattle all along the route from Canada

Kirkwood, in view of the many amendments to the bill and its importance moved its recommittal to the committee on commerce for report

Davis thought the present law better than the proposed one. Railroad and stock men opposed any legislation. The bill would not touch a road which is entirely in one state

McPherson affirmed that railroad and stock men did favor the bill.

Davis said that the patent car was at the bottom of the whole thing

The motion to recommit was agreed to.

Paddock introduced a bill to equalize homesteads and for the relief of settlers on school lands in Washington territory; referred.

Ademeyer and Anthony, recusant witnesses in Ingalls' bribery case, were excused from contempt.

Logan presented petitions for the reduction of duty on zinc and for the equalization of bounties.

Hill introduced a bill to provide for the erection of a public building in Denver. Referred.

Allison gave notice that to-morrow after the morning hour he would call up the Bayard resolution for the withdrawal of the legal tender quality of United States notes for the purpose of permitting debate thereon. He understood that several senators desired to speak on the resolution.

House.

Bills were introduced by Loring for a constitutional amendment allowing woman suffrage.

Culberson's bill for the discontinuance of the national bank system was introduced

Ellis introduced a joint resolution appropriating $500 000 for the suffering Irish people.

Warner introduced a bill for paying the United States bonds next maturity.

Chittenden asserted that the legal tenders in time of peace were a public sore and a political device.

The house considered the bill relating to national bank reserves.

Chittenden declared the cry of "Let well enough alone" was fallacious and mischievous. It means gold for New York and silver and paper for the west. America will evidently control the gold market as soon as congress will let it. Let us once decide to pay the floating war debt, and in five years we can do it without a ripple of excitement. Had he power he would stop the legal tender power of greenbacks, stop minting silver dollars, would convert the silver owned by the [illegible] instead of buying bonds pay them due with the $6,030 000 of gold and silver produced by the mint every month. All the gold wanted for currency could be easily controlled, and other great nations could be forced to join the United States in the establishment of a bi-metallic standard whenever it was in the interest of the United States to do it.

Lounsbery made a speech, after which, the morning hour having expired the bill went over.

The house went into committee of the whole on the report of the committee on rules.

Williams mentioned the disorder due to the poor construction of the rules. He would offer an amendment forbidding the speaker to entertain requests for unanimous consent except under certain conditions.

The committee rose and the house adjourned.

SUPREME COURT.

SALEM, Jan. 20, 1880.

Supreme court met at 10 o'clock A. M., full bench being present.

The Coyote Gold and Silver Mining company, resp., vs Wm. Ruble and Walter Ruble, appts; appeal from Jackson county; cause on trial, argument to close by noon of the 21st inst.

Court adjourned until 1.30 o'clock P. M.

REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

WEDNESDAY MORNING JAN 21 1880

A [illegible] SITUATION

[illegible] said that the [illegible] address [illegible] democracy of Oregon [illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] the financial [illegible] made [illegible] the subject [illegible] the [illegible] artfully [illegible] under a thick fog of [illegible]. The Bayard resolution is now [illegible] in the senate and it will be a matter of interest to see how the [illegible] of both parties will deal with it. Not long since the New York Herald, [illegible] organ of the democratic party, gave [illegible] whom it might concern that unless Mr Bayard's resolution should be taken and passed by the votes of the southern democrats in congress the electoral vote of New York next fall would be cast for the republican presidential ticket. The Constitution, a journal published at Atlanta Ga, construed this [illegible] as a bold threat and felt called upon as a representative southern journal to make a counter threat, which it did in the following words

"Under these circumstances it becomes the duty of the Constitution to as frankly inform the northern democratic leaders that the southern states can be carried by no party which attempts or proposes to attempt to destroy the currency of the people in the interest of the money power. The occasion demands plain language and this is as plain as we can possibly make it. If Mr Bayard and his friends propose to make this attack upon the greenbacks a test of democracy, they will not find enough democrats in the south to make a regiment of militia."

The Constitution proceeds to inform Mr Bayard and his friends that they are greatly mistaken in supposing that the south is so solid that it will submit to anything the northern democratic leaders may dictate. Admitting that the south is pretty solid, and will submit to almost anything for the sake of success yet it insists that there is one thing to which the south will not submit under any imaginable circumstances and that is the "demonetization" of the sacred greenback. "A democratic victory" it says, "is not as necessary to the general prosperity, or as essential to the substantial well-being of the people of the south as the stability of the paper currency of the country—the greenback dollar." It thinks that an attempt on the part of the republicans to deprive the greenback of its legal tender character is "disgusting and deplorable, but not to be wondered at, but such an attempt on the part of a democrat is simply infamous." And so the Constitution "as a representative southern journal," runs on to the extent of considerably more than a column, finally declaring that its purpose is "merely to say candidly to those democrats in congress who may be tempted to follow Mr Bayard's lead that they can not carry the south on that issue."

This being the situation, it is not so surprising that the authors of the address to the democracy of Oregon think it best to equivocate, shuffle and dodge. Yet if it be true on the one hand that the party can't carry New York unless the southern men in congress support and pass the Bayard measure, and if likewise it be true on the other hand that the democrats can't carry the south if they do support it then all such dodging as that employed in the Oregon address will be in vain. If a party can't move without committing hari-kari, its situation is gloomy indeed.

THE CHICAGO DECLARATION

The authors of the democratic address base their appeal for their views as to state sovereignty upon a text of the republican platform [illegible] coln was nominated for the presidency. This text is quoted as follows

The maintenance inviolate of the rights of the states, and especially the right of each state to order and control its own domestic institutions according to its own judgment exclusively is essential to that balance of powers on which the perfection and endurance of our political fabric depend; and we denounce the lawless invasion by armed force of the soil of any state or territory, no matter under what pretext, as among the gravest of crimes.

This is called in the address "an honest republican declaration," and the assertion is made that it "stingingly rebukes that party of to-day." But the authors of the address seek to make their point first, by perverting the sense in which the republicans used this declaration, and second, by attributing to them a departure from its doctrine. The republicans did not intend to assert by this declaration that armed forces might not be sent into a state or territory when necessary to enforce the authority of the United States. When the rebellion broke out they did not deem themselves prohibited by this declaration from invoking the military power of the nation and when, under these circumstances troops were sent into the rebellious states they did not call it "invasion," though the democrats did. It is just as well to recall the state of facts which occasioned the issuance of the above declaration. At that time the democratic party was wholly devoted to the propagation of slavery. It existed solely to support that most infamous form of organized crime. Under direction of democratic administrations the army had been used to force slavery upon new and unwilling states. Under these circumstances the republicans, as the party of law and of freedom, made their protest in the language of the Chicago platform. The protest was a just one, and the principles were and are entirely sound. But the declaration is a very different thing in spirit and purpose for the negation of national authority on which confederate democratic doctrine is based. The republican party acts to this day in accord with the spirit of the Chicago resolution, while the controling element of the democratic party has turned state sovereignty into an attempt to disrupt the Union, and more recently, so recently as the late extra session has reaffirmed all its old dogmas of state supremacy, denied the right of the national government to enforce honesty in elections and proclaimed anew its old notions as to the paramount authority of the states. While the republican party makes no attack upon the just rights of states, it does insist on upholding national authority and it differs from Gen Lane and his associates on this subject just as it did in 1861 when they were actively upholding the pretensions of the state sovereignty rebellion

CITY POPULATION

The [illegible] reports show that in 1790 only one thirtieth of the population of the United States lived in cities of 8000 inhabitants and over. Since then the cities have shown a steady and enormous gain. In 1800 the proportion of population living in cities having above 8000 was one twenty fifth, in 1810 and also in [illegible] one-twentieth, in 1830 one-sixteenth, [illegible] one twelfth, in 1850 one eighth, in 1[illegible] one sixth, in 1870 a little over one fifth. At the last date the inhabitants of cities numbered in all 8,071,[illegible] [illegible] the census [illegible] the proportion of population [illegible] cities will be found by the census [illegible] the present year to have still further [illegible] [illegible] millions [illegible] population [illegible] who [illegible] living in cities of 8000 [illegible] and over. In the older states the [illegible] will of course be greater [illegible] other states. As for the south it may be [illegible] whether returns from any state of that section will show one-fourth of the population in cities of 8000 inhabitants. [illegible] the new states California presents [illegible] an excessive urban population, San Francisco alone containing one [illegible] of the entire inhabitants of the state. [illegible] Oakland, Sacramento, San Jose, Los Angeles and other principal [illegible] of [illegible] inhabitants [illegible] cities. This [illegible] a [illegible] [illegible] left [illegible] of Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

A Washington territory paper reports that W [illegible] Hill of Oregon is soliciting an appointment as judge in that territory to succeed Judge Wingard. This is a mistake as Mr Hill is not an applicant for that appointment or any other. He could not accept such position were it offered him, nor even consider it. A year or more ago a number of gentlemen of Walla Walla spoke to Mr Hill on the subject saying that they were informed Judge Wingard would not be reappointed though they spoke well of him as a judge. They asked Mr Hill to consider it but it did not suit him to do so and he never thought of it afterwards. Within a few days thereafter Judge Wingard was reappointed. It may be added that several years ago Mr Hill was offered a judgeship in Washington territory but declined the appointment for business reasons. As those who know him are well aware he has never been an office seeker but has often declined positions he might have obtained had he desired them

A very proper petition has been submitted to congress asking a reduction of the tariff on steel rails. For Oregon no more useful measure could be passed. Railway construction, which is now just actively beginning in our state is hampered and shackled to an excessive degree by the enormous tariff on rails. What Mr Villard petitions for is directly in the interest of Oregon and Washington. Railroads built at low cost mean cheap transportation, at high cost oppressive rates. The Oregon Railway and Navigation Company means to deal fairly with the country and reduce transportation charges to lowest possible rates. It could do much more than it can now promise could it get a reduction of two thousand dollars a mile on the cost of rails

Grant's strength in the New York legislature is a sort of measure of the Conkling influence in that body. And yet that strength appears by no means overwhelming. Reports from Pennsylvania indicate that Blaine's friends in that state do not intend to let the Grant boomers have it all their own way

Alleghany county, Pa, has compromised with the Pennsylvania railroad company for the losses caused by the riots at Pittsburg, by paying $1,600,000 cash. Other claims have also been reduced, so that the whole bill will be under $3,000,000

UMATILLA COUNTY.

PRACTICAL ANSWERS TO SOME PRACTICAL QUESTIONS.

WESTON Jan 16 1880

To the Editor of the Oregonian

I received a letter a few days ago from a Mr. H. A. Winans dated at North Yamhill. He says he writes at the request of many families in his vicinity who wish to emigrate to this county next spring. Believing that a public answer to his private letter is likely to be beneficial to people outside of his locality, [illegible] He asks

First—Is there any chance to get government or railroad lands in Umatilla county?

Second—What is the chance for timber?

Third—How deep do you generally have to go for water?

Fourth—Do you expect to have a no fence-law in Umatilla county soon?

Fifth—What is the price of lumber and shingles?

Sixth—How do work horses and milch cows sell?

Seventh—Is that county adapted to fruit growing?

Eighth—Can you grow corn and vegetables without irrigation?

ANSWERS

First—There is a great deal of good farming land to be taken up in this county yet, but the choicest land is taken—both government and railroad. A man can buy out some person who has choice land cheap, and I believe it is the cheapest way to get good land

Second—Timber is scarce. We have to haul it from the Blue mountains at present, a distance of from 25 to 30 miles, but we expect to get it ere long from Wallula, as it will be rafted down the Snake and Clearwater rivers and sold at reasonable prices soon. Then the farmers living between Weston and Wallula will find it to their advantage to buy at the above place

Third—Water is found all the way from ten feet to 100 feet deep. It depends on where you dig

Fourth—We do expect to have a "no fence" law here soon,—that is, in certain parts of the county namely, northeast of Umatilla river. Our local press is agitating it at present, and it is believed no man can be elected to the next legislature from this county who is not in favor of it. The people mean to have it because this is eminently a farming country and it would be unreasonable to compel men to fence against other men's stock. Furthermore, the timber land in the mountains, where surveyed, is all taken up. Where it is not surveyed, a man cannot take it without leaving himself liable to be prosecuted by the government officials for cutting timber on the public domain—so a no fence law is a necessity in such a country as this.

Fifth—Lumber can be bought at the mills for $15 per thousand feet, shingles are worth from $4 50 to $6 ₩ M.

Sixth—Good work horses are worth from $100 to $200 per head. Circumstances govern the price a good deal. Milch cows are worth from $15 to $30 per head.

Seventh—We raise very fine fruit where fruit has been cultivated

Eighth—There is not much corn raised in this county. Vegetables can be raised almost any place but high land produces the best. We never irrigate anything. In speaking of hauling timber 25 or 30 miles it must be understood that that is about the distance to where there is any vacant land. The city of Weston is about eight miles from timber.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN

WASHINGTON Jan [illegible]—1 30 A M For north Pacific cloudy light rains central and south Pacific clear or fair

CITY.

COLLISION AT ASTORIA The barkentine North Bend which arrived at Astoria yesterday morning just ahead of the Oregon anchored in the channel just below the O. S. S. Co.'s dock the captain of the vessel being inclined to pay the usual charge of stout? wharfage. The Oregon in docking was obliged to go to the left of the North Bend and as she was passing by the tide swung the bark around her boom carrying away a portion of the Oregon's guards and rushing in the purser's office Mr Reed was warned by shouts from passengers on deck of his danger and escaped from his room only a second or two before it was crushed The boom of the bark coming in contact with one of the steamer's davits, was broken off The damage to the Oregon is about $200 and to the North Bend about $100 No blame whatever is or can be attached to the officers of the Oregon and it is questionable whether the North Bend had a right to anchor directly in the Oregon's path knowing that the steamer would arrive very soon after

A SEVERE ACCIDENT—Charles Bacon jr who is employed at the establishment of Mr Dongle, on Front street met with a severe accident yesterday afternoon He was out driving in a buggy when the horse took fright and ran up Stark street Young Bacon used all his strength to check the frightened animal in its mad career but without success. While the horse was passing between Fourth and Fifth streets Charles was thrown heavily to the ground His head came in violent contact with a tree, receiving a severe scalp wound about two inches long, His left arm and various portions of his body received severe bruises He was conveyed to his room and Dr. W H Saylor summoned, who dressed the wound and made him as comfortable as possible under the circumstances

LECTURE DEFERRED—As appears by change of advertisement elsewhere, Mr Muir's supplementary lecture on Alaskan gold fields will be delivered Friday evening, instead of this evening This change is in courtesy to a large number of persons who wish to hear both this lecture and Dr Harvey's, at the Unitarian chapel, and who already had tickets for the latter Mr Muir's lecture Friday evening is his last word before his departure to California, and the interest in what he has to say increases with every audience of our people. He is one of the rare men who tells of what he knows, and never substitutes fancy for facts or rhetoric for solid sense

WHEAT RECEIPTS—The Willamette Locks and Transportation Company have brought down one thousand tons of wheat during the past week, and enough remains in the warehouses along the Upper Willamette to keep the boats busy for the next month The Ilama Hayward will bring down a load of wheat from the Cascades to-day—the first since the holiday freeze The cereal will be shipped from the Upper Columbia at the rate of 200 to 300 tons per week.

DISCHARGED—The charge of larceny of coal oil against the two men, Finnegan and Mahoney, was dismissed in the police court yesterday afternoon, and the prisoners were discharged. The oil alleged to have been stolen was deposited by the drayman to whom Mr Malarkey had consigned it in the stable where it was discovered. The accused had nothing to do with the affair and had not seen the oil.

HELD TO ANSWER—Thomas Watts, who was arrested several days ago charged with having made a murderous assault on H J. Lynch had a preliminary hearing yesterday in the police court. The testimony was deemed sufficient to warrant the holding of the defendant Watts was bound over to await the action of the grand jury in the sum of $500. In default he was committed

LOST HIS MEMORY—David Workman, the man who had his skull fractured in East Portland at the time of the great wind storm, walked with Dr Smith to the scene of the accident yesterday He could remember nothing of it, nor even having been in that neighborhood at the time of the accident. His memory for events of that day seems to be entirely lost.

O. S. W. S. A.—The Oregon State Woman Suffrage Association will convene at the Y M. C. A. hall in this city on the 12th and 13th of February. A number of prominent ladies and gentlemen have been invited to take part in the session of the association, and an interesting meeting may be looked for.

VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFF—The case of Willamette Canal and Locks Company vs Kittridge, which has been on trial for several days in the United States circuit court, was decided last evening The jury after being out a few minutes returned with a verdict of $30,000 in favor of the plaintiff.

UNNECESSARY FIRE ALARM.—A lot of burning brush in the southern part of the city was the occasion for an alarm from box 4, corner Fourth and Hall streets about seven o clock last night The boys had a long, wearying, useless run.

DIME SOCIAL—The dime social at the Congregational vestry rooms by the young ladies of the church to night, promises, like all the entertainments given by them, to be a pleasant affair, and will probably be largely attended.

SUPPLY EXHAUSTED.—Although we printed a large number of extra copies of THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN for January 17, the supply is wholly exhausted This will explain why orders for that issue are not filled,

WASHINGTON COUNTY TAXES.—Sheriff Mathews of Washington county is at the St. Charles hotel, where he will remain until Wednesday at 1 P M to receive taxes for that county

ANNUAL BALL—The German Independent school will hold their annual ball at Turn Halle on Feb. 2d The proceeds of the affair are to be applied to the benefit of the school.

HEAVY FREIGHT — The Oregon brought from San Francisco about twelve hundred tons of assorted freight, a large share of which was discharged at Astoria.

CHARITY BALL.

We call attention to the advertisement of the Ladies' Relief Society in our issue of New To-Day It will be remembered that the ladies of this society withdrew from their purpose of giving their regular ball during the week between Christmas and New Year, that they might not interfere with the arrangements of a sister organization.

The ladies who have been offering tickets for this ball during a day or two past find there still prevails among many persons the idea that the charity ball given by the ladies of the orphanage a few weeks since, was the annual one which they now advertise

We are sure now that the mistake is corrected, that our citizens will not allow this deservedly popular society to make its appeal in vain

A CYCLONE AT SEA.

Two Men Washed Overboard from the Coaling Steamer "Victoria"—The "Oregon's" Downward Passage.

On her last passage down the steamship Oregon met a heavy gale from the southeast Friday morning, the 9th inst, about 8 A. M when off the Umpqua The gale—evidently the same which visited the Willamette valley—increased for two hours, and reached its maximum about 10 o'clock The seas broke over the Oregon's decks and a portion of her bulwarks were slightly stove The barometer fell to 29 20, the lowest Capt Conner ever saw it in his long experience on the sea.

The P M S S Co's coaling steamer Victoria was at the same time 45 miles distant from the Oregon and was struck by a northwest gale She was roughly handled for some hours by the fierce wind, and four of her crew were washed overboard Two were afterwards rescued, but the other two were drowned A comparison of logs between the commanders of the Oregon and the Victoria after their arrival in San Francisco shows that the gale took the form of a cyclone

The report received from Astoria that a wave washed over the decks of the Oregon as she crossed out Thursday afternoon, the 8th inst., has no foundation in fact. The bar and the sea were smooth, and the wave which the party of ladies and gentlemen watching at Fort Stevens saw, existed only in vivid imagination

HE PREFERRED SUICIDE.

Wong Fook the condemned Chinese Murderer, saves the officers the Hangman's duty, by Executing Himself—His dead body found suspended from the ceiling of his cell.

In referring to the hanging of Wong Fook the condemned Chinaman THE OREGONIAN said yesterday The execution will take place about 1:30 this afternoon The statement should have been prefaced with at least one if. The murderer dispensed with the services of Mr [illegible] verbally [illegible] sheriff and [illegible] of this mortal coil without the aid of civil officers minister, scaffold and trap and that too without an [illegible]

At ten [illegible] Fook conversed freely with [illegible] and with James Duffy the jailer. He had been in a nervous and dejected mood all day [illegible] Mr Duffy had been warned that he would probably commit suicide [illegible] the opportunity offered. Fook was there [illegible] placed in a cell with three prisoners, Duffy, Hunting and Wilson Duffy who is serving a six months sentence for [illegible] was promised a reward in the way of a few days curtailment of his prison term for keeping watch over the Chinaman About 11 o'clock Fook lay down and covering himself completely went to sleep or feigned sleep Duffy about 1 o'clock was overcome by Morpheus and when he awakened three hours after found the murderer suspended from the ceiling of the cell stone dead

As soon as he was convinced that his guardians were asleep Fook arose and removing the garments worn in prison donned a clean white suit that had been furnished for the execution He then took a silken scarf or girdle which all Chinese wear to support their nether garments, and twisted it into a stout rope This he fastened to an iron bar extending the whole length of the cell He then evidently climbed up the iron door made a loop in the swinging end inserted his head and jumped down

The corpse was left swinging until 7 o clock when it was removed to the coroner's office A jury was empaneled who after hearing the evidence rendered the following verdict

That the deceased, Wong Fook under sentence of death, came to his death by hanging himself with a scarf suspended from an iron bar running across the top of his cell, between the hours of 1 and 4 A M this 20th day of January 1880 J H Robinson, F A. Thompson John Cook Wm Robinson, Jas Sheridan George Spangle

The news of the suicide soon spread and the body of the dead Chinaman was visited by hundreds of his countrymen, and by no small number of Caucasians The body was given over to Dong Gong and other Christian Chinamen, and was buried in the afternoon from DeLin's establishment

NEWS NOTES FROM KLICKITAT.

[REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE OF THE OREGONIAN]

GOLDENDALE, Jan 17

The city council met on the evening of the 15th inst., and passed ordinances to prohibit hogs from running at large within the city limits and to impose a $2 tax upon all dogs kept in town Being a poor man and able to keep but one dog I can stand it.

Vacancies were filled by electing Dr. A. Coke Helm, mayor and B F Saylor, treasurer

Gaunt & Miller, of this place, have bought the Stage Company's line carrying the mail from The Dalles via Goldendale to Ellensburg, and established the office at their stables here.

Rev J C Kaywood, who for two years past has lived in this valley—coming from near Turner in Marion—met with a severe burn a few days ago by falling on the cookstove in a fit of some kind His health is improving now, he thinks

The driver with the mail from here to Yakima, drove into the Klickitat yesterday morning, which has become a large stream from the rapid snow melting of the past few days, and came near losing himself and horses as well as wagon and mail The force of the waters carried them down some distance when he succeeded in making his escape to the shore The horses went still further below, and came out with the two fore wheels of the wagon, and the remainder, with mail bags, has not been recovered up to this morning

The weather is pleasant again and the snow all off this part of the basin Plowing will be renewed to-day

We congratulate the Czar of Russia upon a narrow escape from an attempt on his life In starting for Moscow, his baggage was sent on ahead he starting soon after passed it and reached Moscow safely while the baggage was blown up A tunnel was found running to a house one hundred and fifty feet from the point where the explosion occurred It is supposed the author of this hellish plot was suffering from a disease [illegible] superinduced by severe pain in the back and kidneys To prevent a repetition [illegible] the Czar has sent to Hodge Davis & Co Portland Oregon for a large shipment of the OREGON KIDNEY TEA

CHINESE MISSION SCHOOL

The following is the fifth annual report of the Portland Chinese mission school

To the First [illegible] Church Portland Oregon Since the last annual report the mission school has been removed to the large and commodious [illegible] erected by [illegible] for its use

THE ATTENDANCE

For the past year has averaged seventy each evening, and it has been very regular The [illegible]

THE KNOWLEDGE

Most [illegible] Christian ethics [illegible] Christ and [illegible] things the moral [illegible] among those who are professed Christians Some also are striving to obtain [illegible] jurisprudence [illegible] his country It has been

THE PLAN

Of those in charge to make use of these advanced students by assigning them places in the different classes so that teachers can use them as assistants and interpreters To this system it is thought is due the rapidity with which an intelligent knowledge of our language is acquired by the pupils—some of them beginning with the alphabet and in twelve months being able to read with ease and understanding Willson's Fourth Reader To this plan also is largely due the Christian spirit that pervades the whole mission

THE TEACHERS

Are generally regular in their attendance two of them have not missed an evening for over two years They all deserve great praise for their self sacrifice and devotion to the work Nearly all are graduates of or students in the high school, and they represent most of the Christian denominations of the city Four of the teachers have been in the school for four years, and one (Miss Mitchell) from its beginning To this lady much of the success of your mission is due Specially so in the service of song To Miss Kate Kingsley your mission is under great obligation She has willingly and with great ability acted as organist in the evening and Sabbath school, and at other meetings all the time that Miss Mitchell has been unable to attend

THE SABBATH SCHOOL

Conducted by Dr. E J Barber has a high average attendance, when the difficulty of obtaining teachers and the fact that religious instruction only is given is considered The studies are confined to the New Testament The story of Jesus and his love, so ably brought out by the superintendent seems to have a wonderful hold on the minds of the scholars, and the answers given to the questions on the lesson show that many of them have made it a subject of deep study. Much care is taken to make every subject plain—Rev Dong Gong acting as interpreter This carefulness accounts for the correctness and extent of the knowledge the school generally possess of New Testament teachings It is hoped that this very important part of your mission work will not lack for teachers in the future

THE RELIGIOUS

Services, conducted by your missionary, the Rev Dong Gong, are well attended, especially those on Sabbath evenings, the house often being almost full Thursday evening prayer meetings are engaged in by the Christian students generally, and often a part is taken by others, who come in to see what is going on Street preaching by your missionary and the Christian brethren, was conducted during the summer months before large and attentive gatherings of the Chinese Outside of Portland much mission work has also been done by your missionary He has shown himself at all times a faithful and willing workman in the Master's service Some questions in relation to Chinese

WOMEN

For a time threatened the harmony of the mission, and caused much anxiety to those in charge, but a kind Providence seems to be overruling these disturbing elements for good In this connection your mission is under great obligations to Mrs R B Whipple, who has truly acted the part of the good Samaritan to this friendless and despised class, giving them a home until provided for For like work Deacon Wm B Hall and wife, of East Portland, deserve your thanks Three women during the year, have sought the protection of the mission and after a careful examination of each case it was determined to do something for them One was [illegible] Portland, and her little boy likewise provided for in this city Another while making a second attempt to escape from the degrading life she was compelled to lead, was shot in the streets of this city. She has since died The third was sent to the Rev Gibson's Female Mission in San Francisco, Cal

THE MONEY

Collected in the school for the year has more than met the current expenses for light, fuel, furniture, repairs and a new stove as follows

F'm the Christian students for sch'l purposes	$ 17 65
F'm the Christian stud'ts for missions	99 0
From the other students for sch'l purposes	83 0
From the Chinese for the new chapel	319 50
From the students for tuition	1000 00
Total	$1590 65

It is worthy of remark that many Chinese in the city who are not members of the school have contributed cheerfully toward the new chapel

Submitted for your careful consideration

INSTANTLY KILLED.

George Drick, a young man 17 years of age meets with a Horrible Fate—A heavy piece of timber falls on him Crushing his skull

A most distressing accident occurred yesterday [illegible] o'clock at Drick's saw mill which is [illegible] some five miles above Vancouver on the Washington territory side of the [illegible] resulting in the death of a young man named George Drick son of the proprietor of the mill [illegible]

[illegible]

at the [illegible] to look [illegible] He glanced up and perceiving at a glance the danger that the timber was descending He sprang aside to escape what seemed a certain death His foot caught and he fell forward striking heavily against a log At the same instant the dislodged timber from above came down with a thud, and [illegible] Drick on the head crushed the skull to a jelly producing death instantly Those who witnessed the horrible accident were riveted to the spot for an instant, scarcely realizing what had occurred The mangled and lifeless remains of the hapless young man were extricated from the wreck and removed to his home His parents are overwhelmed with grief over the heart rending bereavement The age of the deceased was 17 years

That Enemy of Mankind, Consumption can be cured but it is far better to prevent the cruel disease from fastening itself on the system, by the timely use of a remedy like Dr Mintie's [illegible]

CELEBRATED

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure, sometimes the pain is in the left side, the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side, sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant The patient complains of weariness and debility, he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin, his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it In fact he distrusts every remedy Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged,

AGUE AND FEVER

DR C McLANE'S LIVER PILLS IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine are productive of the most happy results No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled

It is said that stock in northern California is in even greater danger than that in southern Oregon the ranchers across the line having put up less provender than their Oregon neighbors A Mr Webb of Siskiyou county has already lost 800 head of sheep out of a band of 22 000

Jacksonville Times The railroad company has made quite a reduction in freight on the Redding road General merchandise has been reduced from 90 cents to 76 cents per hundred from San Francisco, and from 76 cents to 64 cents per hundred from Sacramento a reduction of 12 cents per hundred from Sacramento and 14 cents per hundred from San Francisco

Latest advices from Lake county are of a more favorable nature The snow which has been several feet deep in places is gradually disappearing, to the relief of stockmen Sikes Worden writing to Matt Obenchain from Linkville under a late date says that at least one fifth of the stock is likely to perish and Capt. James Barnes also gives a gloomy account of affairs.

So great has the snowfall been on the Siskiyou mountains that sleighs have been brought into service by the stage company on the route from Cole's to Barron's something that has not happened for many years The stage from the south was over two days and nights the latter part of last week making the transit from Yreka to the Mountain house, a distance of 43 miles, owing to the snow which was fully six feet deep, and as much as ten feet in depth in places

A correspondent writing of the storm from Aurora says: According to reports from various points in our vicinity, it is reasonable to presume that quite a number of cattle and sheep were killed. Mr Bracket's barn was crushed under a falling tree, Kocher's barn was, as I learn, entirely destroyed. Wm L Miller's barn was unroofed, and so was Chas. Keil's. Nieft's barn was partly crushed, while fences generally all over the neighborhood were prostrated Two large trees were thrown across the bridge over Pudding river, near here, damaging the roof to such an extent that it probably requires an entire new roof. Quite a number, perhaps several hundred fruit trees were prostrated, damaging orchards in this vicinity quite considerably. Quite a number of men from here and neighboring Clackamas are out with axes and saws to-day, opening the road leading from here to Needy. I am told that at some places trees from three to five deep are thrown across the road.

Eastern Oregon.

Pendleton contains 1000 inhabitants, but escaped during last week's gale without a single accident to life or property.

The Walla Walla and Blue Mountain railroad, in Umatilla county, was assessed at $34,000, but the county court cut it down one half.

The locomotive "J. G Ruckel" is being overhauled at the shops in the Dalles, and her cylinders are being bored out. This is one of [illegible] nearly sixteen years ago, and she is the best engine of her age in America.

The young man who wandered off from Rock creek on the 13th of December, and is supposed to have perished in the snow, was named Lemuel Buoy, whose parents formerly resided about ten miles south of Eugene City, but now live in Polk county He was about 26 years of age and unmarried.

Eastern Washington.

John Justice has been elected chief of the fire department at Walla Walla.

What the legislature wouldn't do for Eastern Washington the wind did lately—that is, in many places it enacted a no fence law.

The Walla Walla Watchman reports the death of James Fruit, who for a long time was a resident of Oregon, and afterwards of Walla Walla. He died at Santa Ana, Cal., on New Year's day.

As near as can be ascertained, there are 9,000 tons of wheat at Walla Walla, 4 000 at Blue Mountain, 3000 at Tukanon, 6000 at Almota, and 4000 at other Snake river landings, all of which will have to be got down to tide water before the spring wool clip begins to come along

Walla Walla Watchman: Lieut. H. Catley, 2d infantry, is here, to be tried by court martial for some offense, growing out of the last summer's campaign against the Sheep Eater Indians in Idaho. Col. A. S. Daggett, his counsel, is also here, together with a number of soldiers ordered here as witnesses. From all that we can learn this is a malicious prosecution.

Sieg. Schawacher, R. R. Rees and Chris. Maier have duly formed themselves into an incorporated company at Walla Walla, known as the City Water Company, and will at once commence the work of bringing into that city good, pure drinking water in an inexhaustible quantity. The shares are divided into 3000 and will be put on the market at $100 a share.

The contractors for furnishing the ties and bridge lumber for the Northern Pacific road from Spokan to Pen d'Oreille lake, Messrs J E. Edmiston, J W Range, T. W Whetstone and James Allison, are making preparations to begin active operations at this place early in the spring To assist in the work they will set up a steam mill of forty horse power as soon as possible.

The Columbia Chronicle says that the people are awakening and a year from this date will see railroad communication with Dayton 92,000 acres of the best agricultural land in the world is tributary to Dayton, with a down grade. Besides this there are four townships of good timber land which cannot be handled in any direction without passing through this place. We must have a railroad.

C C. Oram writes from Penawawa as follows We had the hardest wind ever known by the oldest settlers, last evening It blew down Hawley, Dodd & Co's warehouse Reed & Newland's warehouse, C. C Oram's barn, Sawdermilk's store, Eliot & Andrew's large store, the gable end of W T McKern's livery stable, scattering lumber all over town and blowing the out houses literally out of town No lives were lost and no one injured as far as heard from Damages about $10,000

From the Inland Empire H W Fairweather, late ticket agent of the O S N Co at Portland, has been appointed general agent at Walla Walla for the railroad between that place and Wallula He is not only a very amiable gentleman, but a wheelhorse to work and a thorough railroad man in every way. He commenced at the foot of the ladder and worked his way up to his present altitude by hard knocks Into his new position he carries with him our very best wishes

NEW YORK Jan 20—U S Bonds—5s [illegible]

LONDON Jan 20—U S Bonds—5s [illegible]

In monetary matters there are no new features of importance to note The transactions are not large in the aggregate though a considerable number of small borrowers are on the market For ordinary loans the usual rates are about 10 per cent per annum with the occasional exception that inconsiderable sums are placed at 1 per cent per month for short terms

In the produce market there is only a moderate degree of activity in most articles but in breadstuffs there appears to be a dullness which is not confined to the local market The review of the market which we print below will be found of interest as indicating the course of the trade for the balance of the harvest year While the business in breadstuffs admitting that the situation of the question of supply and demand is about as last year the probabilities would seem to be that prices would fluctuate between this and the close of the year about as they did in the corresponding months of last year

At the close of January 1879 the Portland market was quoted $1 70 and moved very slowly in a downward direction, reaching $1 5[illegible] in August, until the new crop began to come forward when an advance began reaching $1 80 in September However this probability may be so much influenced by the crop prospects and the available tonnage that it is hardly reliable Prices are now 20@25 cents per cental higher in the local market than at the corresponding date last year Buyers are offering $1 92½@1 95 for good lots with but few transactions. Receipts are light

Aside from wheat there is a fair volume to business in domestic products Oats are quiet and rather dull at 40@43 cents per bushel Meats are in better demand and higher good side selling freely at 12@12½ cents per lb Eggs are still scarce and in good request at 33@35 cents per dozen Chickens are in better supply jobbing at $3 25@4 25 as to quality Potatoes very dull and low

SAN FRANCISCO MARKETS.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

SAN FRANCISCO Jan 20

The rate of the ship Detroit is £2 12s 6d to Cork U K, or continent between Bordeaux and Antwerp £2 6s to Antwerp and 2s 6d less direct.

The feature in local trade circles to day was the auction offering of a line of Japan and China teas importation of Macondray & Co, and mostly their own favorite brands. The attendance was fair but the wants of the trade appeared to be limited About a dozen lines were passed for want of satisfactory bids and only sample lots of several other lines were sold

Tea—Good medium grades of Japan jobbing at 40@45c.

Coffee—Market continues quiet and nominal. The supply in the hands of importers is very small, jobbers waiting further arrivals Central American grades quoted at 17@18½c for fair to choice

Tobacco—Plug jobbing at 40@70c according to brand smoking 30c@$1 15 Connecticut leaf, 15@20c.

Coal—Domestic Pacific coast descriptions selling from wharf at $4@$7, British Columbia, $6@$8 50

Fish—Oregon canned salmon held at $1 35@$1 45 per dozen 1 lb tins Pacific codfish jobbing at 3@3½c and 4@4½c respectively for bbls and selected in cases; smoked herring 65@70c eastern, 40@45

Lumber—Wholesale rates, Oregon pine rough $17@$21, laths $[illegible] 50 shingles $1 75

No spot demand for wheat bags; lots for future delivery quoted at 10¼@10⅜c; wool bags 44@[illegible]c potato gunnies 14c apiece

Sugar—Prices have been steady of late no change having been made in refining rates since the 5th inst Patent cube bbls 12c; crushed 12 extra powdered 12½; extra granulated 11¼ golden C 10c; D 9¼, extra C 10¼c for lots in bbls, half bbls ¼c more, and boxes ½c more No orders received for less than the equivalent of 40 bbls

Powder—Cala blasting, $3 25 ⅌ keg Giant 50c No 2, 75c No 1 Vulcan (blasting) 75c No 1 50c No 2, and 35c ⅌ lb for No 3, with usual discount as to quantity

Quicksilver—Market nominal buyers and sellers being far apart Quotable at 40@45c

Rice—Hawaiian (table) from first hands, 6¼, and good mixed China, 4½c

Salt—Warehouse lots, Liverpool fine, held at $22@22 50; Carmen Island $14 for coarse, and $19@25 [illegible]

Woolen Goods—Same as last given

Metals—Pig iron $30@34, pig lead 5@5½c pig tin, 20c; English cast steel 14@16c ⅌ lb

Leather—Prices of Cala descriptions are quite firm as follows Sole, 20@30c, harness 24@25c skirting, 30@35c calf skins 56c@1 50 ⅌ lb wax leather 14@15c per foot; bridle, $4@7 per side kip skins, 50@60 per dozen.

New York Freights and Markets.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

NEW YORK, Jan 20—Quietness is prevailing feature in the freight market via Cape Horn, and ships make slow progress. The Sovereign of the Seas has sailed with a full cargo comprising in part 234 bbls rosin 550 tons coal 460 cases oil 450 pkgs starch 300 boxes pepper sauce, 208 barrels whisky, 350 cases castor oil, 41 cases tobacco 2241 pieces pink 560 boxes tin 3501 pkgs iron and steel 2483 pkgs pipe, also a large lot of drugs etc. Rates are firmer and higher from the fact that two of the lines, having only a ship each cannot receive any more dead weight, and the third line has taken advantage of the situation and advanced rates to a basis of $9 per ton Tonnage suitable for this trade very scarce, and two of the lines find themselves unable to get vessels to follow in line However with an advance in rates, owners will be more disposed to let their ships go

In steamer freights, there is nothing doing owing to the determination of the Mail Company to clear up the Isthmus of accumulated freight, before taking any more there Many of the goods awaiting shipment on the Isthmus are badly needed here, notably, wines which are scarce and higher in this market. Negotiations are again pending for a contract between the Pacific Mail Company and the Pacific railroads

The proposition is now before the board of directors of the Mail company, and they have been considering it, but with what result is not yet known.

The markets are more or less quiet
Flour—Quiet and easy
Wheat—Dull steady,
Barley—Nominal.
Pork—More active, easier
Lard—Fairly active 5c lower
Rio Coffee—Very dull at recent decline
Refined Sugars—Dull, easier
Teas—A trifle more active, firmly held
Hides—Moderate demand, firm
Turpentine—Limited demand, 50@50½.
Petroleum—Dull and weak

Wheat Supply and Probable Demand.

NEW YORK Jan 20—The Commercial Bulletin to day reviewing the wheat prospects with stocks and afloat, says Great Britain has 84,000 000 bushels more wheat than a year ago. The visible supply of wheat in the United States and Canada on the 10th inst. was 30 309,000 bushels against 18 8[illegible] at the same period of 1879 England has yet to draw from the United States 3,400,000 bushels more wheat in stocks and afloat than a year ago and 71 724 000 bushels more than was then immediately available in our markets. To this extent England is in a better position than a year ago but her wants from this time until next harvest will be much larger than in 1878, and as her dependence must be mainly on the United States the question arises what is our position for supplying her wants?

The Bulletin concludes after an elaborate summing up that the balance of the supply and demand stands about the same as a year ago England however appears likely to find unexpected large sources of supply from India. Australia Chili and the river Platte, all of which report favorably their ability to ship wheat

The Herald to day says There never was a time in the history of New York where so many vessels lay in the harbor awaiting cargoes The number reached 872 of all grades and for all destinations A streak of weather has had something to do in producing this situation of affairs but in the main it is due to a stagnation in the trade especially in the grain and provision markets

Produce Receipts

Produce receipts at Portland for the twenty four hours ending at noon day Wheat 2,742 sks flour 510½ bbls hides green 25 dry 78 cattle [illegible] pelts 115 bdles feed 430 sks bacon 2 sks shins 12 bdles lumber 200 ft; salmon 1 sk sturgeon 1 string apples 198 bxs oysters, 17 sks dried fruit 17 bxs potatoes, 195 sks, chickens 5 coops eggs 14 bxes sheep, 30 hd hay 11 bales vinegar 5 bbls

WHO MAY BE SUFFERING FROM THE effects of youthful follies or indiscretion will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. DR SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of Seminal Weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.
MIDDLE AGED MEN.
There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs
Office Hours—10 to 4 and 6 to 8. Sundays from 10 to 11 A. M Consultation free. Thorough examination and advice, $5. Call or address
